

LOCAL NEWS.

SETTLING UP OLD ACCOUNTS.—A short time ago there was published in the Gazette an account of an action that had been commenced by John Hall, of Fairfax county, against John Trux, for the larceny of a gun taken from the plaintiff during the war. The particulars of the case in a few words are as follows: During the war John Trux, E. Denight, Lewis Giltingham and others, residents of the neighborhood of Accotink, and belonging to a military organization known as Home Guards, went to the house of John Hall, in Fairfax county, and Trux took therefrom a double barreled shot gun, which he kept, notwithstanding the demands of the owner, until about a month ago, when understanding that Hall had procured a warrant for his arrest on the charge of stealing, he carried the gun to Washington and turned it over to the officer in charge of the ordnance department, taking his receipt for the same, and upon the asseveration that he had that receipt in his possession, the warrant was dismissed by Justice Mason, before whom he was brought, but a civil suit, was instituted for the recovery of the gun. Trux then went back to the ordnance department to reclaim the gun, but was informed that it could not be delivered to him except upon an order issued by the Secretary of War upon authority granted by a special act of Congress. Affairs having reached this state, the Home Guards, to stop further proceedings and accumulating costs, subscribed the amount at which the gun was valued, and last week paid Mr. Hall and took his receipt.

MOOT COURT.—The Moot Court reassembled at the office of Brent and Wattles on Saturday evening, Francis L. Smith Jr. in the Chair and G. A. Mushback, Secretary. The Committee appointed at the previous meeting to prepare rules for the business of the Court, through Mr. A. W. Chilton, presented its report, which after some amendments was adopted. The election of Judge being the next business, Mr. F. L. Smith Jr., having called Mr. Neale to the chair, presented the name of C. W. Wattles, esq., for that position in an exceedingly neat speech, in which he referred to the peculiar fitness of Mr. Wattles for the position on account of his experience and knowledge of the Court. No other nomination being made, Mr. Wattles received the unanimous vote of the Court. On being informed of his election, Mr. W. returned thanks for the honor conferred and gave at length what he considered the object of a moot court, how it should be conducted &c. He pointed out the advantages the members of the profession would derive from it and urged a full and thorough preparation of each case. In accordance with the rules he appointed G. A. Mushback Clerk and S. C. Neale Treasurer. Messrs. Chilton, Smith and Neale were appointed a Committee to select a case for discussion, and Messrs. Smith and Neale a Committee to select a place of meeting. The Court then adjourned until next Saturday evening at 7.30, at the office of Brent and Wattles. There was a full attendance of members of the bar and much interest was manifested in the proceedings.

CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—Evidence in the contested Congressional election case was taken before U. S. Commissioner Paul R. Hambrick in the U. S. District Court room today. The 1st point raised was that the polls were not opened at Occoquan until 9 or 10 o'clock on the morning of the election, and that parties were in consequence prevented from voting, and to prove this Robert Allen, C. W. Holland, J. W. Gregg, L. E. Swann and A. P. Lynn were examined. The 2nd was that at Centerville one Judge of Election received two votes during the temporary absence of his associates, and to prove this John Simpson and W. H. L. Kendrick were examined. The 3rd was that at Culpeper Court House in addition to votes for E. M., votes were counted for C. L. R. and E. Braxton, and to prove this Thomas Pendegrast Henley, formerly of this city but now clerk of the court of Culpeper, was examined. All the witnesses were summoned on behalf of the contestant, Major Braxton deeming the points not of sufficient importance to require any rebutting testimony. Mr. Isaiah Fisher conducted the examination on the part of the contestant, the sitting member managing his own case. The examination held to-day, it is understood, closes the case so far as the taking of evidence is concerned.

COUNTY COURT.—The March term of the County Court for this county Judge R. H. Cocke presiding, commenced and closed today. Corbett vs. Buckley; in chancery; decree confirming report of Commissioners appointed to make partition of real estate. A. L. & H. R. vs. Alexander & Gregory et al., upon a petition for right of way. Cause removed to Corporation Court. Albert Stuart renewed his notarial bond. Gemeney vs. Windsor—upon a suggestion. The question raised in this case is, whether on the trial of a suggestion, which issued from this Court, under an execution of this Court, based upon execution issued by a magistrate and filed in the clerk's office of this Court, you can go behind the magistrate's execution to ascertain whether it was properly issued. Cause argued and continued. Several other cases were called and continued. Court adjourned till Court in course.

FEAST OF PURIM.—With to-night commences the 2227th anniversary of the Feast of Purim (from the word Pur, signifying lot) which will be solemnized in Jewish Synagogues throughout the world by reciting the Book of Esther, which contains the remarkable events of the delivery of the Jews from the hands of Haman as told in the ten chapters of the Book of Esther. On last Saturday, in this city, a sermon was delivered having particular reference to the Feast of Purim. Portions of the Bible were read which treat of Amalek, the arch-enemy of the Jews, who fought against Israel on their exit from Egypt. The Reformed sect, the only Jews in this place, will have service in their Synagogue at 9 a. m. to-morrow. The principal feature of the occasion is the sending of gifts to the poor.

CORN AND OATS.—We have received specimens of Chester county Mammoth corn, Norway oats, and Alsike clover, from N. P. Boyer & Co., of Chester county, Pa., which can be seen at this office.

EXCITEMENT.—Some excitement was created yesterday evening in the Southeastern section of the city by a colored man named James Mitchell, who having knocked his wife down with a brick back, and as he thought killed her, ran from his house near Jamieson & Collins' foundry, to the lower ship yard and jumped overboard. The tide was low, however, and the cold bath being more suggestive of the delights of actual than of ideal flames, he scrambled out as soon as he could, and surrendered himself to the police, who were on his track. The woman was not hurt as badly as it was at first supposed.

THE WEATHER.—March is creditably sustaining its reputation as a blower. The wind came out strong from the Northwest early this morning and has been blowing a gale ever since. It blew so hard that work on the Long Bridge had to be suspended, and the steamer Prince William, which was attempting to go through the draw there, had to drop farther down the river and anchor. It blew the loose bricks from the tops of the chimneys in this city, and in one case, on Prince street, between Fairfax and Water, blew them off just as a young lady was passing the pavement upon which they fell. She, however, fortunately escaped unhurt.

THE COLUMBIA.—The steamer Columbia, Captain Harper, arrived here yesterday evening from Baltimore, on her first trip since the resumption of navigation. She brought a large freight and a fair complement of passengers. The Columbia is looked upon as one of the institutions of the Potomac, and her arrival is welcomed as would be that of an old friend. She will leave on her return to-morrow night, and not on Wednesday morning as heretofore.

VOLUNTEER MILITARY COMPANY.—The young gentlemen who for the last few days have been engaged in obtaining names of members of a Volunteer Military Company to be organized here have succeeded beyond their expectations. More than sixty names have already been secured, and a meeting will soon be held for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

BALL.—The first annual ball of the Hebrew ladies of this city will be given at Harmonie Hall to-morrow night. It is expected to be one of the most agreeable affairs of the season. The arrangements have been completed and a large number of tickets have already been disposed of. The proceeds are to be appropriated to the erection of a building for religious and educational purposes.

PERIODICALS, &c.—We have received Little's Living Age for last week, which has a continuation of the best German novel of the day, Seed Time and Harvest—Wood's Household Magazine—The Young Pilot—Catalogue and description of the Mechanics' and Agricultural Fair of Louisiana, to be held in New Orleans on the 8th of April.

AMAZONS.—A large crowd collected at the intersection of King and Washington streets on Saturday evening last to witness a combat between two colored females who had selected that locality as the site upon which to settle their difficulties, and who dealt each other many severe blows until they were separated by the police.

DEATH OF DR. CHASE.—It will be seen by our Richmond letter that Dr. J. E. Chase, formerly of this city, died in Richmond last Saturday. He leaves here many friends who respected and esteemed him highly. He was an excellent gentleman, and stood high in his profession.

AN ALARMING DRINK.—A resident of the 1st Ward on Friday night last, under the impression that he was taking a drink of brandy swallowed a gulp of muriatic tincture of iron, and until medical aid was rendered him, thought that he would never take another drink of any sort of liquor.

NORFOLK LINE.—The steamer Lady of the Lake left here this evening for Norfolk. There is an effort being made to put on a daily line of steamers between Washington and Norfolk, which will be successful if the Postmaster General will agree to send a daily mail by the route.

YESTERDAY.—The weather yesterday was delightful, and as a consequence the churches were all attended by large congregations. Many persons came here from Washington—and the grave yards and other suburban localities had many visitors during the evening.

LOUDBON MARBLE QUARRY.—Engineer Addison Marbury left here this morning to inspect a route for a proposed railroad track from the Loudoun marble quarry to Leesburg or some other point on the line of the Washington and Ohio Railroad.

CLERICAL CHANGE.—Rev. L. M. Nickerson, Presiding Elder of this, the Richmond Circuit, of the Virginia Conference, M. E. Church, has been assigned to duties in Oregon, and Rev. E. P. Phelps, stationed by the late conference at Richmond, will supply the vacancy.

FISHING.—The catch of rock, perch, and catfish at Cawood's and Ashton's shore, below Aquia Creek, is tolerable. A few shad and herring have appeared.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—But two marriage licenses were issued from the Clerk's office of the County Court for this county during the month of February.

LEG HURT.—A little son of Mr. John Craven fell out of a wagon in the first ward yesterday and had his leg badly hurt in consequence.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—Elizabeth Walker, colored, hailing from Maryland, for disorderly conduct, was fined and discharged.

James Mitchell, colored, for an assault upon his wife, was bailed for his appearance at a future examination.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night clear and cloudy at intervals. There were no disturbances in any section of the city. Two prisoners, but no lodgers, were at the station house.

An eccentric minister, in a large parish, had seventeen couples to marry at once in a grand common service at church. In the course of the wedding he asked one of the men to pledge himself to the wrong woman. The man naturally protested, but was told—"Hold your tongue? I will marry you all now and here; you can sort yourselves going home."

LOST.—On Friday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, a pair of GOLD SPECTACLES, in a Britannia case. A liberal reward will be paid the finder if left at this office. mar 6-2t

TELEGRAPHIC.

DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Neither House was in session to-day. There is a formidable movement going on to prevent the Senate from concurring with the House resolution for adjourning Congress on Wednesday.

It is understood that the President wishes the session to continue until the commissioners return from San Domingo.

The Criminal Court of the District opened to-day, several murder cases will be tried during the term.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, March 6.—The Times publishes a special dispatch from its Versailles correspondent who says: The prescribed limits of France are being rapidly evacuated by the German army. The movement is conducted quietly and with admirable order. The Emperor goes this week to Ferrierer and will review the corps during his journey. Mont Valerien and all other forts will be evacuated on the 15th, 16th and 17th, and the left bank of the Seine 19th. A corps of 40,000 French soldiers from the provinces is now marching into Paris, where they will replace the troops of the line and the mobile guards, who commence to leave the Capital Monday.

Arrangements are being made by the staffs of the French and German armies which will prevent the Germans encountering the French in their movements both in and out of Paris.

The Emperor Napoleon is hourly expected at Chislehurst, which is still the abode of the Empress Eugenie.

Negotiations for a definitive treaty of peace will commence shortly at Brussels. It is said Favre will be the French plenipotentiary. It is probable that Herr Von Arnim, acting on the part of Germany, and Baron Baude, as the representative of France, have already settled the main points, but the details will occupy several months.

LONDON, March 6.—A dispatch from Paris states that the city is in great excitement consequent on a determined action of the revolutionist's party.

The revolutionists have entrenched themselves at Mont Martre with a battery of guns, and the Government has brought up the troops of the line to resist any attack the revolutionists may make on the city. The reports of the organization of the revolutionists are very much exaggerated, but the facts are there is an organization of a very formidable character. The facts are too obvious to be denied.

The railroad connection for carrying the mails with England and Belgium is now completed.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AN INSALUBROUS NOTICE.—Spring is well advanced, and we should be glad to have its bloom without fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious diseases.

Back on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be, "to tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the whole-some, preventive and restorative. In such cases, their advice is worth more than that of a dozen. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy for you to procure a bottle. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and they would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to tend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.
